The Deed of Trust was granted to secure certain "Obligations" as defined therein and creates a lien on certain real and personal property and other rights as more fully described therein (collectively, the "Property").
- B. The Grantor and the Grantee entered into that certain Settlement Agreement dated as of May 17, 2011, with K. - C. The Grantor has requested that the Grantee, as holder of the Deed of Trust: (i) release a portion of the Property from the lien, operation and effect of the Deed of Trust, and (ii) subordinate the lien, operation and effect of the Deed of Trust with respect to a certain "Clubhouse" and "Clubhouse Parcel", all as described in the Settlement Agreement.
- D. The Grantee is willing to do so provided that, among other things, the Grantor grant to the Grantee a lien upon certain rights of Grantor arising out of the Settlement Agreement and related documents, all as more fully set forth herein below.

Comment: Per the Settlement Agreement, the Clubhouse (and Parcel) is released from the M&T Deed of Trust lien.

The Settlement Agreement, the Covenant, the Assignment of Declarant Rights, the Easement, the Assignment of Plats and Plans and any Declaration are herein sometimes called the "Settlement Documents".

Boyd Miller 7/5/17 3:42 PM

Comment: CLIG and CLDG grant to M&T all powers and benefits granted per the Settlement Agreement and any new declarations and the right to become the Declarant and/or Developer.

3. Grantor's Agreement to Perform; Proof of Performance. The Grantor agrees that it shall fully perform all obligations, duties, agreements and conditions to be performed by the Grantor under the terms and provisions of the Settlement Documents and that the Grantor shall, upon the written request of the Grantee, provide the Grantee with such evidence of such performance as the Grantee may reasonably request from time to time.

Boyd Miller 6/19/17 7:55 AM

Comment: CLDG and CLIG will fully adhere to the provisions of the SA.

4. No Present Transfer of Obligations. This Assignment does not and shall not be construed to impose any obligation or liability on the Grantee. The Grantee shall have no obligations or liabilities under any of the Settlement Documents (except for those expressly imposed upon the Grantee by the Settlement Agreement and the Covenant), until such time as the Grantee shall elect, in writing, to succeed to and to exercise the rights, powers and benefits of the Grantor with respect to any one or more of the Settlement Documents, and then the Grantee shall only be obligated to perform those obligations that the Grantor specifically elects to perform. In no event shall the Grantor be liable for any act or omission of the Grantee under any Settlement Document during the period before the Grantor elects to succeed to the rights of the Grantee under such Settlement Document.

Boyd Miller 6/19/17 8:08 AM

Comment: M&T assumes no obligations until such time they elect to do so.

5. Grantor Default; Exercise of Rights. Upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, as defined in the Deed of Trust, the Grantee: (i) shall have the right to exercise any and all remedies available to a secured creditor under the relevant Virginia law with respect to this Assignment and, (ii) shall have the right at any time and from time to time to exercise any one or more of the rights, powers and benefits of the Grantor, set forth in or arising under or out of any one or more of the Settlement Documents. The Grantee may at any time and from time to time, assign or reassign any one or more of such rights, powers and benefits of the Grantor to one or more third parties.

Boyd Miller 6/19/17 8:12 AM

Comment: In the event of CLDG/CLIG default M&T must still honor the Settlement Documents.

6. No Limitation on Grantee's Prior Rights. The forgoing grants are in addition to and not in substitution for any rights of the Grantee which presently exist or may hereafter be acquired. Nothing in this Assignment shall be construed or applied to lessen or diminish any right, remedy or power previously granted to the Grantee by the Deed of Trust or otherwise.

Boyd Miller 6/19/17 8:18 AM

Comment: The remaining eight sections are more or less typical legalizations.

7. Grantor's Representations and Warranties. The Grantor represents and warrants to the Grantee that (i) the Grantor has not previously assigned any of the Grantor's rights, powers or benefits under any of the Settlement Documents; (ii) this Assignment is effective without the consent of any third party and the execution and delivery of this Assignment by the Grantor does not violate, conflict with or create a default under any of the Settlement Documents or any other document or instrument binding on the Grantor; and (iii) this Assignment is the valid and binding act of the Grantor, enforceable against the Grantor in accordance with its terms. This Assignment shall be effective even if one or more of the Settlement Documents are executed after the date of this Assignment.

8. Further Assurances. The Grantor shall, within five (5) days of request by the Grantee, execute and deliver such other and further documents and instruments as may be necessary or desirable in order to effectuate this Assignment. Upon the occurrence of an Event of Default under the Deed of Trust, the Grantee shall have and the Grantor hereby grants to the Grantee a power of attorney to execute any documents or instrument reasonably required in connection with the exercise of the Grantee's rights under this Assignment. The Grantee agrees that it shall not utilize such power of attorney without at least five (5) days prior written notice to the Grantor. The forgoing power of attorney is coupled with an interest and is irrevocable.

9. Severance. If any term, covenant, or condition of this Assignment or the application thereof to any circumstance or person, firm or corporation shall be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remaining terms, covenants, conditions and provisions of this Assignment or the application thereof to any circumstance or to any person, firm or corporation other than those as to which any term, covenant, condition or provision is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each remaining term, covenant, condition and provision of this Assignment shall be valid and shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

10. Interpretation. The Paragraph headings used herein are for reference and convenience only and shall not enter into the interpretation hereof. Whenever herein the singular number is in use, the same shall include the plural, and the masculine gender shall include the feminine and neuter genders, and vice versa, as the context shall require.

11. Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the Commonwealth of Virginia, without regard to Virginia's conflict or choice of law rules, provisions or principles.

12. Successors and Assigns. The provisions hereof shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns, and shall run with the ownership of the Property.

13. Joint and Several Liability. The liability of the two entities that comprise the Grantor shall in all cases be joint and several.
